Assignee.

SUPERIOR COURT OF NEW JERSEY
CHANCERY DIVISION, PROBATE PART
BURLINGTON COUNTY

DOCKET NO: 2005-1408

VERIFIED APPLICATION FOR COURT
AUTHORITY TO MAKE DISTRIBUTIONS TO CREDITORS

WARREN J. MARTIN, JR. (the "Assignee"), Assignee for the Benefit of Creditors of Fleeer Collectibles, LLC ("Fleeer Collectibles"), by and through his counsel, Porzio, Bromberg &
Newman, P.C. ("Porzio"), by way of Verified Application For Court Authority To Make Distribution to Creditors (the "Application"), respectfully states as follows:

BACKGROUND

1. The Assignee was designated pursuant to a Deed of Assignment for the Benefit of Creditors (the "Assignment") dated June 8, 2005, registered with the Burlington County Clerk's office on June 10, 2005 (the "Assignment Date"), and an Amended and Restated Deed of Assignment for the Benefit of Creditors dated July 14, 2005, registered with the Burlington County Clerk's office on July 18, 2005.

2. Fleer Collectibles was primarily in the business of producing and selling die-cast miniature replica vehicles through a staff of approximately sixty (60) full-time employees. Prior to the Assignment Date, Fleer Collectibles had ceased all operations and terminated all employees.

Auction of All of Fleer Collectibles' Assets

3. On July 14, 2005, the Assignee held a court-approved auction (the "Auction") of substantially all of the assets of Fleer Collectibles, together with certain intellectual property belonging to Fleer/Skybox International, LP ("Fleer/Skybox"), the parent company of Fleer Collectibles.

4. The winning bidder at the Auction was FSB Acquisition Company, LLC, an entity related to the Upper Deck Company ("Upper Deck"), which purchased the combined Fleer/Skybox and Fleer Collectibles Assets for $6,100,000.00 (the "Winning Bid"). On application by the Assignee, the Court approved the allocation of the Winning Bid as $3.5 million to the Fleer/Skybox estate, and $2.6 million for the Fleer Collectibles estate. The Assignee has received and holds these proceeds in accordance with the Court's Order dated July 15, 2005, net of certain fees, expenses and the Assignee's commission paid as approved by the Court's Order dated November 30, 2005.

5. The Assignee has also collected other sums on behalf of the Fler Collectibles estate, totaling more than $200,000.00. The total amount on hand in the Fler Collectibles estate as of the date of the Application is $2,113,017.45.

6. As set forth below, the Assignee requests authority to make a 100 percent distribution to the known creditors of Fler Collectibles at this time.

The Claims Exception Motion

7. Pursuant to the Assignee's First Verified Omnibus Exceptions to Claims of Creditors dated October 21, 2005 (the "Exception Motion"), the Assignee objected to claims filed in the Fler Collectibles case on a number of grounds, including, "Wrong Debtor Claims," "Claims Lacking Verification or Documentation," and "No Liability Claims".

8. As a result of the Exception Motion, the claims filed in the Fler Collectibles case were reduced from more than $6 million in claims, to $1,908,267.63. See the Order Approving Assignee's First Omnibus Exception Motion to Expunge, Reduce and/or Allow Certain Claims in the Fler Collectibles Case dated November 10, 2005, and the First and Second Supplemental Orders to same dated November 18, 2005 and December 9, 2005 respectively.

9. With one possible exception, there are no outstanding disputed claims in the Fler Collectibles case.¹ Thus, because the Assignee is currently holding $2,113,017.45 for the benefit of Fler Collectibles creditors, the Assignee seeks authority to make a full distribution to creditors in the amounts set forth on the attached Exhibit "A".

¹ The one possible exception is the claim filed on November 15, 2005 by Republic First Bank, as Assignee of Majesco Graphic Production Services, Inc. ("Republic"). Republic filed identical claims in the amount of $119,338.01 against both the Fler Collectibles and Fler/SkyBox estates. Based upon a review the books and records for each company, it appears that Republic has, at most, a claim in the amount of $6,052.87 against the Fler Collectibles estate. Counsel for Republic is currently confirming the appropriate amount of its claim against Fler Collectibles. To the extent that Republic does not consensually agree to reduce its claim prior to the return date on the Application, the Assignee will make no distribution to Republic and will reserve $119,338.01 of the remaining Fler Collectibles account pending a resolution or Court determination of this issue.

LEGAL AUTHORITY

The Assignee Has Authority To Make Distributions To Creditors

10. The New Jersey Statute governing assignments for the benefit of creditors, N.J.S.A. 2A:19 et seq., (the "Assignment Statute"), contains a number of provisions authorizing distributions to creditors. It states:

If no exceptions to any claim or demand are filed, or in case any exceptions are filed, then after they have been adjudicated or settled, the assignee shall proceed to make, from time to time, fair and equal dividends among said creditors from the assets which shall come to hand in proportion to their claims.

N.J.S.A. 2A:19-33.

11. As noted above, after the filing of the Exception Motion, the Assignee resolved all outstanding objections to claims, with the exception of the single claim filed by Republic. Republic's claim was not included in the Exception Motion because its claim wasn't filed until November 15, 2005, approximately three weeks after the Assignee filed the Exception Motion. Nevertheless, the Assignee has sufficient monies to make a distribution to all finalized Fleer Collectible creditors, and still reserve the full amount of Republic's claim pending a resolution of same. Accordingly, the Assignee should be permitted to make fair and equal distributions to creditors at this time.

12. Additional relevant provisions of the Assignment Statute provide as follows:

The court, in its discretion, on the application of the assignee or any person in interest, from time to time, may direct such partial distribution from the assets in hand to those creditors whose claims are not in dispute as may safely be made, reserving at all times sufficient assets to secure, after all the claims shall have been adjudicated and finally settled, an equal and proportionate distribution according to the intent of this chapter.

N.J.S.A. 2A:19-34.

The court may, in its discretion, upon application of the assignee, or of any person in interest, make directions with respect to any or all dividends, including the time when the same shall be made and the amount thereof.

N.J.S.A. 2A:19-35.

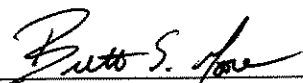

13. In this case, the Assignee is currently holding funds in excess of all remaining Fler Collectible claims. Even after making the requested 100% distribution to creditors in the amount of $1,908,267.63,² the Assignee will still have $204,749.82 which he will hold as a reserve against any past or future administrative expenses incurred in connection with closing the Fler Collectibles case and/or any additional claims including, if necessary, Republic's claim.

14. Creditors were advised to file their claims with the Assignee by no later than September 17, 2005. See Exhibit "B".³ As noted, claims in excess of $6 million were timely filed against the Fler Collectibles estate. Based upon a review of the filed claims and Fler Collectibles books and records, the Assignee does not expect any additional legitimate claims to be filed against the Fler Collectibles estate.

WHEREFORE, your Petitioner, Warren J. Martin Jr., Assignee for the Benefit of Creditors of Fler Collectibles, LLC, respectfully prays for the entry of an Order Authorizing Distributions to Creditors in the amounts set forth on the attached Exhibit "A".

DATED: December 16, 2005

PORZIO, BROMBERG & NEWMAN, P.C.

By:
Brett S. Moore

² Assumes a $6,052.87 distribution to Republic.

³ Please note that Exhibit "B" includes the original notice sent to Fler Collectibles creditors, as well as the proof of publication as required in N.J.S.A. 2A:19-25. However, notices and proof of claims forms were also provided to creditors upon request throughout the pendency of this case.

VERIFICATION

I, Warren J. Martin Jr., Assignee for the Benefit of Creditors of Fleer Collectibles, LLC do hereby make solemn oath that the statements contained in the above Verified Application For Court Authority To Make Distribution to Creditors are true and accurate according to the best of my knowledge, information and belief. I am aware that if any of the foregoing statements made by me as contained therein are wilfully false, I am subject to punishment.

STATE DIGESTS

unpaid, plaintiff filed a complaint alleging that the sum of $4,397.10, was due and owing, together with costs and statutory attorneys' fees pursuant to N.J.S.A. 22A:2-42. In his answer, dated Aug. 29, 2002, defendant did not deny the debt or dispute that plaintiff was entitled to be paid the sum of $4,397.10.

Defendant made a substantial payment and the parties settled their differences prior to trial. The case was marked "settled" on the trial date, and a fully signed stipulation of settlement was filed with the trial court on Oct. 30, 2002. The written stipulation of settlement contained only three provisions:

1. That there is due the plaintiff from the defendant(s) the sum of $2,925.27.
2. ... defendant shall pay ... $10.00 per month beginning November 1, 2002 through October 1, 2004 then to be renegotiated ...
3. In the event of a default of any payment to be made by the defendant there under which shall continue for a period of more than ten (10) days, then upon filing a certification of such default by plaintiff's attorney without notice, plaintiff may proceed to enter judgment for the sum set forth in the complaint, less any payments made hereunder, plus interest and costs.

Prior to defaulting, defendant made 12 monthly payments, each in the amount of $10. His last payment was made on Oct. 7, 2003. As provided in the stipulation of settlement, following the default, plaintiff's attorney filed his certification together with a proposed order for entry of judgment with the court. Plaintiff's attorney explained that a stipulation of settlement had been negotiated and filed with the court, and he attached a copy of it to his certification. Plaintiff's attorney certified that defendant had paid the sum of $1,753.56 on account prior to defaulting, and he also certified that the sum of $2,643.54 was "due and owing on the complaint."

The court incorrectly denied plaintiff's application for entry of judgment. The order indicates that "the total amount paid since the settlement exceeds that required by the settlement."

Plaintiff's subsequent notice of motion for entry of judgment was served on defendant pursuant to Rule 6:3-3. Although defendant did not oppose plaintiff's motion for entry of judgment, plaintiff's application was denied. The order states: "Since the judgment deals with the amount demanded in the complaint rather than the settlement amount, there will have to be an affidavit of proof on the merits."

Plaintiff's third application for entry of judgment consisted of a notice of motion for reconsideration. In a supporting certification, plaintiff's attorney stated that there was no need for any further affidavits because "the debt in suit merged into the stipulation of settlement," and proof of the indebtedness was established by the stipulation of settlement together with "evidence of the breach and evidence of the payment on the settlement." Plaintiff's motion for reconsideration was denied on Sept. 8, 2004, with the notation "Denied as before."

Following plaintiff's appeal, the trial court supplemented its findings in accordance with Rule 2:5-1(b). Citing to Wasserman's Inc. v. Township of Middletown, 137 N.J. 238 (1994), the judge wrote: "if a plaintiff seeks to enforce a settlement agreement that calls for a higher amount to be paid than that contained in the settlement, if the settlement is breached, he must show that the amount sought bears a 'reasonable relationship to the probable loss suffered by the plaintiff.'"

The issue in Wasserman, however, was whether a stipulated damages provision in a cancellation clause of a commercial lease was an enforceable liquidated damages clause or an unenforceable penalty clause. That case did not involve an agreement to settle pending litigation, and the issues addressed in Wasserman are not present in this case. Furthermore, as the Court noted in Wasserman, "the party challenging a stipulated damages clause 'must establish that its application amounts to a penalty.'" Id. at 253 (citation omitted). In this case, defendant has never claimed that plaintiff is not entitled to enforce the terms of the written stipulation of settlement dated Oct. 22, 2002.

In the third paragraph of the stipulation of settlement, the parties specifically agreed that if defendant failed to make a payment when due, and the default continued for more than 10 days, then "plaintiff may proceed to enter judgment for the sum set forth in the complaint, less any payments made hereunder, plus interests and costs," "upon filing a certification of such default by plaintiff's attorney without notice." That has been done three times, with notice to defendant on two separate occasions, and defendant has never filed any opposition. In these circumstances, there is no justification for requiring plaintiff to file an additional "affidavit of proof on the merits." Cf. R. 6:7-1(d) ("A request to enforce a settlement agreement or consent judgment in a tenancy action shall be by certification").

Defendant has never claimed that the settlement agreement was unfair, unreasonable or unenforceable. The court, therefore, should have been guided by the general proposition that public policy strongly favors the settlement of litigation, and it should have been more receptive to plaintiff's efforts to enforce the settlement.

Held: Accordingly, the stipulation of settlement in this case should have been viewed by the court with a predisposition in favor of its validity and enforceability.

Reversed and remanded.

LANDLORD/TENANT — Discrimination — Public Assistance

Pasquince v. Brighton Arms Apartments, A-6933-03T1; Appellate Division; opinion by Petrella, P.J.A.D.; decided and approved for publication June 30, 2005. Before Judges Petrella, Lintner and Yannotti. On appeal from the Law Division, Monmouth County, DC-6984-04. [Sat below: Judge Mark A. Sullivan Jr.] DDS No. 27-2-0833

Plaintiff has failed to show that defendant used his poor credit history as a pretext for discrimination based on his Section 8 status, and his discrimination claim was properly dismissed; creditworthiness remains an appropriate selection criteria for Section 8 tenants, and defendant did not violate the Law Against Discrimination by relying on plaintiff's poor credit history in rejecting his rental application.

Plaintiff John Pasquince appeals from a decision in the Special Civil Part, following a bench trial, concluding that he had been properly rejected as a proposed tenant by Brighton Arms Apartments due to his lack of creditworthiness, rather than because he was a recipient of Section 8 housing assistance. Plaintiff's summary proceeding application under R. 4:67-2 on the basis of a claim of violation of the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination (LAD), N.J.S.A. 10:5-12(g)(4), was rejected.

Pasquince suffers from a medical condition that confines him to a wheelchair. He receives approximately $556 per month in combined Social Security disability insurance (SSD) and supplemental security income (SSI). Brighton Arms consists of 428 units, accepts Section 8 tenants and presently has between 13 and 16 residents who receive Section 8 subsidies.

At the time Pasquince completed the rental application he presented Brighton Arms with copies of the Section 8 housing voucher and verification of his income from SSD and SSI. Pasquince's Section 8 housing voucher would cover $774 per month of the rent, leaving him responsible for the remaining $141 per month. He also told Brighton Arms about his poor credit history and discussed the possibility of his sister co-signing the lease. Although she initially agreed to co-sign the lease, his sister subsequently withdrew her consent.

Brighton Arms exempts Section 8 applicants from its minimum income requirements because it may not discriminate against such applicants based on the source of their income. It does not exempt Section 8 applicants from other checks and its policy is to deny rental applications based on poor credit history. The credit report on Pasquince
